

Rules and Entry Form for the 2012/2013 California Upland Game Bird Stamp Art Contest

The California Department of Fish and Game (DFG) is conducting a competition to select a design for the 2012/2013 California Upland Game Bird Stamp. To enter, please read the rules below. A signed and fully completed entry form and participation agreement must be submitted along with each entry.

1. Contest is open to U.S. residents who are 18 years of age or older as of March 1, 2011. DFG employees are ineligible.
2. Each contestant may submit only one entry. Each entry must be accompanied by a completed and signed Participation Agreement Entry Form and a non-refundable $50 entry fee. Money orders and checks should be made payable to "K.O.S.C."
3. The primary subject of the 2012/2013 California Upland Game Bird Stamp design is the Band-tailed Pigeon (Patagioenas fasciata). A rendering of this species must appear prominently in the design. The design must include at least one adult Band-tailed Pigeon. If background detail is included in the design, it must be accurate and representative of the species' natural habitat in California. Designs will be judged on originality, artistic composition, anatomical accuracy, and suitability for reproduction as a stamp and print.
4. The design is to be in full color and in the medium (or combination) of the artist's choosing, except that no photographic process, digital art, metallic paints or fluorescent paints may be used in the finished design. Photographs, computer-generated art, art produced from a computer printer or other computer/mechanical output device (air brush method excepted) are not eligible and will be disqualified.
5. The maximum image size cannot exceed 18 inches by 13 inches and must be horizontal. The maximum overall dimensions of the art cannot exceed 20 inches by 15 inches, including mat. Any mat used must be white.
6. The artist's signature must not appear anywhere on the image.
7. None of the written information printed on a finished upland game bird stamp may appear on the painting or mat.
8. No scroll work, lettering or accent borders may appear on the painting or mat.
9. The painting must not be framed or under glass. Any acetate or other protective covering used must be lightly fastened to facilitate removal before judging.
10. Any winning design from another stamp contest (federal, state or private) is not eligible.
11. The design must be the contestant's original "hand drawn" creation. The entry design may not be copied or duplicated from previously published art, including photographs, or from images in any format published on the Internet.
12. There shall be a period of 15 days immediately following the contest judging during which any artist or may make a plagiarism claim against the winning design. In the event any such claim is upheld by DFG, the first runner-up shall be declared the winning design, subject itself to a 15-day plagiarism claim period.

13. The winning artist will be ineligible to compete in the next consecutive (2013/2014) California Upland Game Bird Stamp contest.
14. The artist shall retain the original art work. DFG shall retain all rights and interest in the image and its use.
15. DFG may produce a limited Conservation Edition to be signed by the artist. Numbers shall be placed just below and to the left side of image. Signatures shall be placed just below and to the right side of image. Signature and number shall be done in pencil. The winning artist has the option of contracting with DFG for production, promotion, sales and distribution of these prints. Any contract shall contain terms and conditions of the production, marketing, sales, distribution and artist's royalties of said prints. Terms and conditions will be negotiated between the winning artist and DFG.
16. All contestants are advised that it is their responsibility to obtain adequate property insurance for their contest submission. DFG will not insure any contest entry and DFG assumes no liability for any damage, loss or theft of any entry.
17. Entries may be mailed, shipped or delivered in person to: California Department of Fish and Game, 1807 13th Street, Suite 104, Sacramento CA 95811. The art should be protectively packaged.
18. Entries for the 2011/2012 California Upland Game Bird Stamp Contest will be accepted from Oct. 22, 2011 at 9 a.m. through Jan. 31, 2012 at 4 p.m.
19. All phases of the judging process will be open for viewing by the general public. The selection of the winning entry will take place as soon as possible after the closing date of the contest but in no event will it be later than May 31 of each year. The exact date, time and location of the contest will be announced at a reasonable period of time prior to April 30.
20. All entries will be on public display on the contest judging date. Non-placing entries may be claimed immediately after the judging by any artists in attendance.
21. All other non-placing entries not picked up at the DFG's Sacramento office will be returned to the artists by June 30, 2012.
22. DFG's Office of Communications, Education and Outreach will select the judging panel. The judges will have expertise in the fields of ornithology, conservation, art and printing, and will serve without compensation except reimbursement of related expenses. The identification of the members of the judging panel will be announced on the date that the judging takes place.
23. The first place, second place, third place and honorable mention artwork will be retained by DFG for display purposes and will be returned to the artists by July 30, 2012.
24. Any entry that fails to comply with any of the requirements of this competition will be disqualified.

Participation Agreement 2012/2013
California Upland Game Bird Stamp Art Contest

I agree to all of the above-stated terms of the 2012/2013 California Upland Game Bird Stamp Art Contest. Enclosed is my $50 non-returnable entry fee, made payable to "KOSC."

Signature of Artist _____

Date _____

Name (please print) _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Daytime Telephone Number _____

Email address _____

Entry Form

2012/2013 California Upland Game Bird Stamp Art Contest

Attach this part to the back of your entry, and send your entry and the Participation Agreement to:

California Department of Fish and Game
1807 13th Street, Suite 104
Sacramento CA 95811
Telephone: (322)-8911
Fax: (322)-8989

Artist's Name _____

I am: male _____ female _____ My Date of Birth: _____ / _____ Month / Year

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Daytime Telephone Number _____

Email Address _____

Artistic Medium Used _____